I. Approval of the April 10, 2014, Minutes

II. Proposals, Awards, and Scholarships (PAS) Report
   (Dr. Paulyn Cartwright reporting)
   A. CLSX Combined BA/MA (see Addendum)
   B. Report on Mentor, Thesis Award Competitions

III. Policies and Student Petitions (PSP) Report
     (Dr. Byron Caminero-Santangelo reporting)
     A. Update on Dean’s Charges Report, DGS Meeting & Lunch

IV. Program and Curricular Changes (PCC) Report
    (Dr. Brian Ackley reporting)
    A. Course Changes:
       1. New Courses: HA 720, HA 760, HA 995

V. Old Business
   A. POLS 704

VI. New Business
    A. Upcoming Chair Elections
    B. Submission of Subcommittee Preferences
I. Approval of the April 10, 2014, Minutes

The University of Kansas
College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
COMMITTEE ON GRADUATE STUDIES

MINUTES
April 10, 2014, 11:00AM
STRONG HALL – ROOM 210

Members Present: Brian Ackley, Byron Caminero-Santangelo, Peter Grund, Marni Kessler, ChangHwan Kim, Milena Stanislavova (Chair), Alesia Woszidlo, Abbie Hodgson (Graduate Student)

Others in attendance: Cindy Lynn (COGA), and Jim Mielke (ex-officio)

The meeting was called to order by Dr. Stanislavova at 11:05 a.m.

Minutes
A motion was made and seconded to approve the March 13, 2014, minutes of the Committee on Graduate Studies, as written. The motion was approved unanimously.

Report of the Program and Curricular Changes (PCC) Subcommittee
(Dr. Brian Ackley, reporting)

A. Program Changes:

A motion was made and seconded to approve the BIOL, PhD program change with the following friendly amendment. The motion was approved unanimously.

4. Graduate Program Committee. These individuals and committees will provide material feedback to the student within 2 weeks before the examination, which will be circulated to all concerned.

A motion was made and seconded to approve the FREN, PhD program change. The motion was approved unanimously.

A motion was made and seconded to approve the EVRN, PSM program change. The motion was approved unanimously.

A motion was made and seconded to approve the GERM, PhD program change. The motion was approved unanimously.

A motion was made and seconded to approve the GERM, PhD (RSRS) program change with the following friendly amendment. The motion was approved unanimously.

*This requirement can be fulfilled by completing an approved course or by completing a proficiency examination. The language course may be taken in the summer. If that is not possible, a student may take the course during a Fall or Spring semester while also taking 2 three-credit hour graduate courses in German. Students specializing in medieval philology or older literature must select Latin as the second language for reading knowledge.
A motion was made and seconded to approve the PUAD, PhD program change. The motion was approved unanimously.

B. Curricular Changes:
   1. New Courses: EVRN 721, EVRN 740, EVRN 750
   2. Course Changes: ECON 918, GERM 753, GERM 953, POLS 825

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned by Dr. Stanislavova at 11:45 a.m.

Upcoming Meetings

The next meeting of the Committee on Graduate Studies is Thursday, April 24, 2014, 11:00 a.m., 210 Strong Hall.

Respectfully submitted by Cynthia Lynn, COGA

---

II. Proposals, Awards, and Scholarships (PAS) Report

A. CLSX Combined BA/MA (see Addendum)

B. Report on Mentor, Thesis Award Competitions

III. Policies and Student Petitions (PSP) Report

A. Report Update on Dean’s Charges Report, DGS Meeting & Lunch

IV. Program and Curricular Changes (PCC) Report

A. The PCC Subcommittee recommends the following new course and course change to the CGS:
   The Curricular Changes Subcommittee recommends the following new courses
   1. New Courses: HA 720, HA 760, HA 995

   History of Art

   HA 720 Asian Art: Theory and Method (3)
   This course examines important methodologies and theories of the past and present employed in the field of Asian art history. Through critical reading of primary documents and secondary scholarship, students will gain historical perspective on and practical tools for research in the history of Asian art and visual culture. Prerequisite: 9 hours of History of Art or consent of instructor SEM.

Grading: A-F, W and I

This course is an elective
This course is not a RSRS course
This course is not a degree requirement

Effective date: This course will first be offered Spring 2015 every other year thereafter

JUSTIFICATION:
This course is specially designed for students following the East Asian art history track, who would benefit from study of the particular methods used in East Asian art history.

HA 760 Proseminar in Korean Art (3)
Intensive study of a selected topic in the visual arts of Korea; topics may focus on a particular genre, theme, historical period or group of artists, for example Buddhist painting and sculpture, Chosŏn period landscape and genre painting, ceramics and lacquerware or modern and contemporary art in North and South Korea. May be repeated for credit up to a maximum of 12 hours. Prerequisite: Consent of instructor. SEM.

Grading: A-F, W and I

This course is an elective
This course is a RSRS course
This course is not a degree requirement

This new course will be first offered Fall 2015, and then Every other fall semester thereafter.

JUSTIFICATION:
Korean Art is a major/new area in the Department of History of Art and we now have a faculty member prepared to offer the course. It will fulfill an elective and may be repeated for up to 12 hours given that the specific focus of this seminar will frequently change.

Regarding the RSRS requirement. This is not a program change. Grad Studies gave approval that all HA graduate seminars would include instruction in RS2 and so this new course will also count as fulfilling RS2. We include language about this in our syllabi.

HA 995 Seminar in Korean Art: (3)
Concentrated study of one particular genre, theme, historical period or group of artists. Readings will include primary and secondary language material in Korean, Japanese and/or Chinese including texts in classical forms of these languages. May be repeated for credit up to maximum of twelve hours. Prerequisite: Reading knowledge of Korean, Japanese or Chinese and consent of instructor.

SEM.

Grading: A-F, W and I

This course is an elective
This course is a RSRS course
This course is not a degree requirement

This new course will be first offered Fall 2015, and then Every other Fall semester thereafter.

JUSTIFICATION:
Korean Art is a major/new area in the Department of History of Art and we now have a faculty member prepared to offer the course. It will fulfill an elective and may be repeated for up to 12 hours given that the specific focus of this seminar will frequently change.

Regarding the RSRS requirement. This is not a program change. Grad Studies gave approval that all HA graduate seminars would include instruction in RS2 and so this new course will also count as fulfilling RS2. We include language about this in our syllabi.

V. Old Business

The recently CGS/CAC approved new course below, POLS 704, appears on the agenda as an informational item due to a correction to meet catalog requirements.

NEW COURSE
POLS 704
(NEW)

POLS 704 Quantitative Methods Primer in Political Science (1)
Provides an introduction of basic quantitative methods in political science to prepare graduate students for the quantitative methods sequence in the Ph.D. program; basic statistics, statistical analysis techniques, and probability are explored. KU degree seeking students should contact the Political Science Department to enroll in the course. Non-degree seeking and non-KU students may enroll in the course by signing up with KU Continuing Education. Graded on a satisfactory/unsatisfactory basis. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor. WWW

VI. New Business

A. Upcoming Chair Elections

B. Submission of Subcommittee Preferences