Minutes recorded and transcribed by Anne Sawyer

Addendum A

At the beginning of the fall semester, CUSA was asked to consider interrelated proposals to address the following issues:

- KU would like to offer distance education non-major BGS degrees to students graduating from Kansas community colleges who are unable to move to Lawrence.
- KU would like to offer distance education non-major BGS degrees to students attending the Edwards campus who have a limited number of majors from which to choose.
- Some students are unable to gain admission to their desired major because of major admissions criteria imposed by six departments.

  o Some of these students struggle to find a new major that meets their needs and within which they can obtain a graduating GPA ~ 2.0 in junior/senior level coursework.
  o Pursuing a different major may add time to the student's graduation date. This will become a more acute issue when tuition compact students are trying to graduate but cannot.
- There may be merits to imposing major admission criteria and more departments would like to use them.

  o Selective admissions allow the department to clearly communicate to students the skills necessary to succeed in the major, and the department's minimum standards of achievement in the core classes in which these skills are taught.
  o In fairness to departments, all departments/units should be allowed to impose admissions criteria if they believe these will help students to select a major in which they will succeed.
There is a widely held perception that departments without admissions requirements are lesser majors.

Departments not allowed to impose an admission standard may change their major course requirements in a manner designed to decrease the wide appeal of the major.

Proposal I: Add a second non-major degree track to the BGS

- Degree Requirements
  - 124 credit hours, 45 of which are numbered 300+
  - Common Degree Requirements (unchanged 27 hrs)
    - English (3 courses)
    - Argument & Reason (1 course)
    - Mathematics (2 courses)
    - Western Civilization (2 courses)
    - Non-western Culture (1 course)
  - Principal Course Requirements (at least 18 hrs - same as BGS Track 1)
    - Humanities (2 courses, at least 3 credit hrs each)
      - Each course must come from a different category: HT, HL, or HR
    - Natural Sciences & Mathematics (2 courses, at least 3 credit hrs each)
      - Each course must come from a different category: NB, NE, NM, or NP
    - Social & Behavioral Sciences (2 courses, at least 3 credit hrs each)
      - Each course must come from a different category: SC, SI, or SF
  - World Language/Culture Requirement
    - Two courses (3 credit hrs or higher) in a single world language (Amharic-Yiddish, see Undergraduate Catalog, page 55)
    - OR
    - Three courses (3 credit hrs or higher) in world culture (W designated course)
  - Breadth Requirement (as many hours as required to reach 124 credit hrs)
    - At least 2 credit hours of coursework completed in 15 different departments/programs within CLAS (as determined by course prefix)
    - All of the course requirements listed above count toward the breadth requirement.

According to Dr. McNeley's calculations, students arriving at this degree at the 11th hour would be able to graduate in one more semester.

Proposal II: Allow all departments in CLAS to enforce admissions criteria to their major.

- Allow all departments/units wishing to do so to propose a set of criteria for admission to their major.
  - CUSA would approve these individually and bring them to CAC for approval.
  - Majors currently enforcing admissions criteria will need to have them re-approved by CUSA.
  - CUSA suggests the following criteria (deviations from this criteria must be accompanied by a rationale):
    - Department may use a cumulative GPA achieved in up to three courses that the department identifies as teaching the core skills required to succeed in the major. These courses should not have more than one prerequisite course.
      - If one of these courses is taught by another department, that course should be a prerequisite for one of the "core skills" courses.
    - Departments may require that students earn up to a 2.5 criterion GPA in these identified courses.
      - KU's course repeat policy applies to the calculation of this criterion GPA.
        - A repeat is possible if the student earned a D or F in a course numbered 000-299 (no repeats for cases of academic misconduct).
        - Only the final grade is used in calculating the criterion GPA.
        - No more than 5 grade replacements may be used for all courses taken at KU.
Students meeting departmental admissions requirements prior to attending KU (e.g., transfer coursework, proficiency exam score) may be admitted to the major by petition with department approval.

- Selective admissions criteria would be enforced only for those students admitted to KU in the semester following approval from CUSA and CAC.

II. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON GRADUATE STUDIES (CGS)

A. Curricular Changes for Approval

The CGS APPROVED the following NEW COURSES:

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

<td>TOPICS IN ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES; (3)</td>

Courses on special topics in Environmental Studies. These courses may be lecture, seminars, or readings. Students may enroll in more than one interest group but may enroll in a given interest group only once.

Justification for Request
As the interdisciplinary “home” of the IGERT C-CHANGE program, and as EVRN seeks to expand graduate-level interdisciplinary course opportunities, it is important to have a topic course in which faculty can explore a wide variety of topics as interest arises.

The CGS APPROVED the following CHANGES IN COURSE LISTINGS:

The CGS APPROVED the REVERSAL of the following DELETION:

POLITICAL SCIENCE

CHANGE: REVERSAL OF DELETION
POLS 722 INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS (3)
A survey of characteristic legal, political, and administrative relationships among different units of American government, with particular emphasis upon the role of state agencies. Prerequisite: Nine hour of Political science. LEC

Justification for Request
The department submitted this Deletion in error, and the committee voted unanimously to approve at the November 13, 2008 CGS. The department has asked for a reversal of the vote.

B. New Program for Approval

WOMEN, GENDER, & SEXUALITY STUDIES

First, WGSS did not supplement the information from the departments of Political Science and Theatre & Film (pp. 40-41) illustrating the breadth of support for the new program. Hannah Britton, a WGSS faculty member in attendance, made clear that the brief support letters provided from the departments were representative of separate meetings where faculty votes demonstrated the departments’ full support of the program. The CGS members accepted this rationale, yet they also cautioned the program that the brevity of the letters could be misinterpreted.

Second, ambiguity is still present in regards to the Theatre & Film track since the department is in the process of separating. The WGSS representatives explained that they wish to wait until the department changes are closer to being settled before focusing on revising the Theatre & Film track if needed.

Third, there was concern regarding core courses WGSS 805 and WGSS 806 because these courses can be taken multiple times for credit. Yet, committee members cited other programs in the CLAS that also use this model. In addition, when these core courses are included with the other core coursework, the hours appear to add to 19 instead of 16 credit hours. The CGS seemed to accept the rationale behind taking a course more than once, but they asked that the apparent error in hours be addressed. There were no further concerns. NOTE: After committee members moved on to other business, Hannah Britton cited page 15 in the WGSS proposal and suggested that the CGS may have mistakenly counted both WGSS 803 (3 credits) and WGSS 804 (3 credits) in the total when in fact it states that students will have a choice of taking either 803 or 804.

The CGS APPROVED the proposal to move forward.

C. Program Changes for Approval

ENGLISH

The subcommittee reported on the proposed English Ph.D. program changes, which include a change in existing degree requirements and a new option or track within existing degree.

The CGS APPROVED the proposal to move forward.

SURVEY OF JAPANESE FILM   3 H
This course surveys the major developments in and critical approaches to twentieth-century Japanese film. Focusing mostly on narrative films, Survey of Japanese Film introduces students to basic methodological issues in Japanese film history—especially questions of narrative, genre, stardom, and authorship. We examine Japanese cinema as an institution located within specific contexts while focus on the ways in which this institution shapes gender, race, class, ethnic and national identities. This course examines how patterns of distribution, exhibition, as well as of reception influence film aesthetics and film style over the last century. Through secondary readings, lectures, and discussions students will critically examine how Japanese cinema as an institution both responds to and intervenes in the social, cultural, and political history of twentieth century Japan. Proposed New Concentration: Arabic and Islamic Studies for the Department of African & African-American Studies (AAAS)

PROPOSAL
The Department of African & African-American Studies wishes to create a new concentration in Arabic and Islamic Studies. Currently, there are two concentrations for African & African-American Studies majors—one in African Studies, the other in African-American Studies. Arabic and Islamic courses are currently taught under the umbrella of African Studies. What follows is for a new concentration in Arabic and Islamic Studies to compliment the existing two concentrations.

Requirements for the B.A. or B.G.S. major in Arabic and Islamic Studies concentration are 33 credits, distributed as follows:

Students must take and pass at least two first- and second-year general education courses from two of the following departments: American Studies, anthropology, communication studies, economics, English, environmental studies, geography, history, history of art, linguistics, philosophy, political science, religious studies, sociology, or theatre and film. The Department may consider substitutions. These do not count toward the major.

Students must also take:
AAAS 102 Introduction to Arabic and Islamic Studies 3
AAAS 349 Islam (same as REL 350) 3
AAAS 433 Islamic Literature 3
AAAS 543 Language and Culture in Arabic-Speaking Communities 3
AAAS 496 Field Experience OR 690 Investigation and Conference 3
AAAS 550 Senior Seminar 3
Five relevant elective courses numbered above 300 15

(Courses available for elective hours include but are not limited to the following:
AAAS 320 Anthropology of Islam
AAAS 320 Business and Political Culture in the Arab World
AAAS 320 Peoples and Cultures of North Africa and the Middle East
AAAS 320 Religion, Power, and Sexuality in Arab Society
AAAS 415 Women and Islam
AAAS 432 Francophone African Literature
AAAS 435 Muslim Women’s Autobiography
AAAS 445 Arab Thought and Identity
AAAS 450 Popular Culture in the Muslim World
AAAS 504 Directed Language Study I: Arabic
AAAS 505 Directed Language Study II: Arabic
AAAS 542 History of Islam in Africa
AAAS 545 Unveiling the Veil
AAAS 552 Classical Islamic Literature
AAAS 650 Sufism (same as REL 650)
AAAS 657 Gender in Islam and Society (same as REL 657)

B.A. majors in this concentration also must take 16 hours of an African language (Arabic, Hausa, Kiswahili, or Wolof).

Honors: For graduation with honors, a student must maintain a minimum overall grade-point average of 3.25, and 3.5 in the major, and must complete 3 additional hours by enrolling in AAAS 695. AAAS 695 is evaluated by a committee composed of the instructor plus two other faculty members approved by the department chair. An affirmative recommendation by this committee is essential for graduation with honors, provided that the other requirements have been met. A student who plans to graduate with honors must file a declaration of intent form with the departmental honors coordinator, preferably during his or her junior year, but no later than at enrollment for the final undergraduate semester.

JUSTIFICATION
There has been a steady increase in Arabic and Islamic courses taught in the Department and at KU since 2000. The number of students taking these courses has also greatly increased. As the number grew, students have demanded majoring in Arabic and Islamic Studies as an area of concentration. In the past, the Department had met such demand by supporting student petitions to CUSA for a special degree approval in the concentration. Since last year, such special degree requests by our students have been turned down by CUSA, with the advice that the Department has enough courses within it to offer that major. It is this accommodation that this new major offers. Moreover, the Dean did approve a major in Arabic and Islamic Studies as part of the strategic plan of AAAS. This, therefore, is also an implementation of a College-approved strategic plan. It is a forward-looking concentration that prepares our students for the important roles of Islam and Arabic in American and world politics, economy, business, religion and culture. Except for one course, AAAS 102 Introduction to Arabic and Islam, all the courses listed here are already being offered by our Department and at KU. AAAS is ready to implement this concentration as early as Spring 2009, if CUSA so approves.

JUSTIFICATION
The Department of Theatre and Film is splitting into two departments, the Department of Film and Video Studies and the Department of Theatre, effective July 1, 2009. This proposal reflects the changes in rubrics and titles as a result of this separation.

The Theatre faculty has also taken this opportunity to standardize Department of Theatre B.A. and B.G.S. degrees and established concentrations in “Theatre, Culture, and Society” and “Performance.” These changes will provide greater flexibility for students and facilitate graduation in four years.

The number of 500-level courses required for this degree has been reduced from three to two. Six hours of 500-level theatre history courses were required previously and the Theatre faculty continues to feel they are necessary for majors. TH&F 508 Fundamentals of Directing is no longer required; it is an elective for both concentrations.

5. Change to Existing Major in BGS Theatre & Film – Theatre Emphasis, and the addition of two new emphasis areas within the newly formed BA Theatre major.

A list of the old and new requirements for the Theatre B.G.S. is attached. The changes include:
Change the title to B.G.S. in Theatre.
Change in the rubrics and titles of the courses to reflect new Department of Theatre.
Establish concentrations in “Theatre, Culture, and Society” and “Performance.”
Reduce the required credit hours from 53 to 40. The new requirements are detailed on the attached sheet.
