COMMITTEE ON UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES AND ADVISING
Minutes of the Meeting for January 24, 2006

The committee met on Tuesday, January 24, 2006, at 11:06 a.m. in Room 210 Strong Hall. The following were present:
Bayer, Bradley, Carlson, Carothers, Clark, Clowes, Crosby, D'Anieri, Gordy, Knight, Ledom, LaFever, McCleary, Miner (guest), Robertson (guest), Shaw, Steele, Thompson, Vitevitch, and Walton.

MINUTES  The minutes for December 13, 2005 were approved.

GUEST REPORT  Dr. Robertson from the Philosophy Department highlighted the skill courses and general education requirements of 148 and 310. The primary design of 148 is to develop skills in order to help students evaluate and construct arguments with informal logic. The focus of 310 is basically the same as 148, but deals solely with deductive arguments in formal logic.

CHAIR'S REPORT  Dr. Clowes encouraged the committee to consider integrating skill-development courses and content courses in our effort to lower general education requirements as part of the skill course discussion scheduled for the February 28, 2006, CUSA meeting. Additionally she reported that a draft of the Academic Misconduct Policy should be ready to present to the committee by Dr. McNeley at the February 14, 2006, CUSA meeting.

DEAN'S REPORT  Dr. D'Anieri announced that Dean Joseph Steinmetz would officially start on July 1, 2006. The internal search for an Associate Dean will begin shortly. Dr. D'Anieri encouraged the committee to continue forward with the goals presented by the Interim Dean Romzek and that as a committee, work on the ground covered thus far will be presented to Dean Steinmetz.

CLA&S STUDENT ACADEMIC REPORT  Karen Ledom reported that the start of the Spring 2006 semester began with the Academic Standing emails being sent to the students, the completion of the Fall 2005 certification for Graduation and searches for Advising Specialists continues.
