Program Description

Degree Requirements
M.A. Degree Requirements

The M.A. program is a general curriculum for students who wish to enter the Ph.D. program in anthropology or who plan to pursue graduate studies only to the M.A. level. Formal requirements for the M.A. include

A. Completion of 30 credit hours of graduate work in anthropology and related disciplines including

Select three of the following (students lacking a strong anthropological background may be required to select four as determined at the time of admission and in consultation with their advisor):

- ANTH 701 History of Anthropology
- ANTH 702 Current Archaeology
- ANTH 703 Current Biological Anthropology
- ANTH 704 Current Cultural Anthropology
- ANTH 706 Current Linguistic Anthropology

B. Completion of the subdiscipline requirements;

C. Completion of the M.A. thesis, non-thesis (research paper accepted for publication or an internship report), or M.A. non-thesis coursework equivalent; and

D. Passing the final M.A. examination.

Handbook for Graduate Students

Detailed information, application deadlines, and general information may be found in the Graduate Student Handbook, available on the Anthropology Graduate website.
