ENGL 362: Foundations of Technical Writing
Credit hours: 3

Catalog description
ENGL 362. Foundations of Technical Writing. 3 Hours H. Introduces students to the principles of technical communication. Students learn to organize, develop, write, and revise various technical documents (e.g., letters, manuals, presentations, proposals, reports, resumes, websites) often needed in business, engineering and scientific settings. Includes an introduction to technical-writing software. This course fulfills the prerequisite for English 562 and English 564. Prerequisite: Prior completion of the KU Core Written Communication requirement. LEC.

Rationale
We propose this course to satisfy the CLAS and Department classroom course option. In the course, students learn a range of skills that prepare them for a range of careers that require technical literacy.

ENGL 494: Research Internship
Credit hours: 3

Catalog description
ENGL 494. Research Internship. 1-3 Hours H. Practical research experience in English studies gained by assisting a faculty member on a faculty research, editorial, pedagogical, or outreach project. Credit hours are graded by faculty on a satisfactory/unsatisfactory basis. May be used as a component of the Research Experience Program (REP). Prerequisite: At least one 300-level English course, declaration of English major, and permission of instructor. INT.

Rationale
This internship provides experiential learning in a campus setting. Like our other internship, it provides supervised instruction (under the mentorship of a faculty member) that builds skills for career preparation.

ENGL 496: Internship
Credit hours: 3

Catalog description
Practical experience in the use of English skills in supervised academic or professional settings. Credit hours are graded on a satisfactory/unsatisfactory basis, according to the written evaluation provided by the supervisor to the director. Prerequisite: At least one 300-level English course, declaration of English major, and permission of Undergraduate Director.

Rationale
ENGL 496 is an experiential course offering internship instruction. Students are mentored by a professional in the field and by a faculty member (the Director of Undergraduate Studies).
ENGL 497: Service Learning Internship
Credit hours: 3

Catalog description
ENGL 497. Service Learning Internship. 1-3 Hours H. Practical experience in the use of English skills in a non-profit or advocacy context. Credit hours are graded by faculty on a satisfactory/unsatisfactory basis, according to the written evaluation student provided by the on-site supervisor and on the student’s written reflective component assigned and evaluated by the supervising faculty member. May be used as a component of the Service Learning certification program. Prerequisite: At least one 300-level English course, declaration of English major, and permission of instructor. INT.

Rationale
This course provides experiential learning through an internship in a non-profit or advocacy context, under the supervision of a professional and a faculty member (the Director of Undergraduate Studies in English).

PSYC 483: Undergraduate Internship in Psychology
Credit hours: 3

Catalog description
Students conduct psychology focused fieldwork in an organization related to their professional/career goals. Credit hours are determined on the basis of 120 clock hours for 3 credit hours, 80 clock hours for 2 credit hours, and 40 clock hours for 1 credit hour. An internship plan (contract) is developed by the student in conjunction with the student’s academic adviser and signed off by the academic adviser and an authorized agent of the internship site. At the conclusion of the internship experience, the authorized agent of the internship site writes the academic adviser indicating that the student has met the goals of the internship plan and the hours required. No more than 3 hours of PSYC 483 may be counted toward the minimum hours required for the major. Prerequisite: Admission to the Psychology major. INT.

Rationale
This course already addresses the 4 bullet points under the title Department-Specific Experiential Course Option (minimum 3 credits).
